CORAM :HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE SHARAD D.DAVE

Date : 11/07/2005

ORAL JUDGMENT

1. By filing this petition, the petitioner detenu has challenged the detention order dated 07.01.2005 passed by the District Magistrate, Ahmedabad in exercise of the powers conferred upon her under sub-section(2) of Section 3 of the Prevention of Black Marketing and Maintenance of Supplies of Essential Commodities Act, 1980 (“the Act” for short), as, the District Magistrate, Ahmedabad acting under the Act arrived at the subjective satisfaction that it was necessary to prevent the detenu from acting in a manner prejudicial to the maintenance of supplies of essential commodities like (Petroleum Products) Solvent which is essential to the community.
1. Along with the detention order, the detenu was also served with the grounds of detention of the same date.
2. Heard the learned advocate appearing for the petitioner Mr.Kiran Jani, learned AGP Mr.Bhate for respondent nos.1 to 3 and Mr.M.A.Shaikh for respondent no.4. Affidavit-in-reply filed on behalf of respondent No. 2 and counter affidavit on behalf of the Union of India were also taken into consideration.
3. Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner detenu raised manifold contentions. He has drawn the attention of this Court to a document at page 62 in the compilation. The document appears to be the order passed by the Metropolitan Magistrate Court no. 2, Ahmedabad dated 19.12.2004 below the application filed by the petitioner. Upon perusing the said document, it clearly transpires that the said document is illegible. In that view of the matter, when the detaining authority has taken this document into consideration, this document becomes vital document affecting the right of the detenu of making effective representation. The facts of this case are squarely covered by the decision in the case of P.S.Chandel Vs. District Magistrate, reported in 1991(2) GLR 753 wherein the Division Bench has observed in para 3 as under.:
4. In that view of the matter, it is apparently clear that the detaining authority has failed to supply legible copy of the above referred document to the detenu for making effective representation, and, therefore, it is in violation of the right of the detenu under Article 22(5) of the Constitution. Under the circumstances, the detention order cannot be sustained and deserves to be quashed and set aside on this ground alone.
1. In view of what is stated above, the petition is allowed. The order of detention dated 07.01.2005 is quashed and set aside. The detenu Nareshkumar Harishchandra Jain is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith if he is not required in connection with any other case. Rule is made absolute accordingly. Direct service is permitted.
